On the south side of Market street east of Front street, and on the east side of Second street, between Market and Dock streets, and on the north side of Washington avenue, between Second and Front streets, and on the west side of Front street, between Washington avenue and Mifflin street, and on the south side of Mifflin street from Front street to Moyamensing avenue, and on Moyamensing avenue from Mifflin street to Broad street, and thence via Penrose avenue and Tinicum Island road (or Tinicum road) to the City line. Provided, That the said City of Philadelphia shall have the right to place telegraph wires on said telegraph poles, from time to time, without expense to the City for the use thereof. And further provided, That the said American Union Telegraph Company shall keep the poles and fixtures erected under the provisions of this ordinance well painted and in good repair. And further provided, Each pole shall be of chestnut timber, forty-five feet in length, seven inches in diameter at the small end, each pole to be straight and neatly dressed and painted with not less than two coats of paint. And further provided, That the permission granted in this ordinance shall be revocable at the pleasure of City Councils by ordinance.

Sect. 2. The said American Union Telegraph Company shall also have the privilege of placing twelve wires on the telegraph poles of the City, on the north side of Market street, between Front and Second streets, and on Second street, between Dock street and Washington avenue, in such position on said poles as the Superintendent of the Police and Fire-alarm Telegraph shall direct. And the said American Union Telegraph Company shall renew the poles belonging to the City of Philadelphia now in use on the north side of Market street, between Front and Second streets, and on Second street, between Dock street and Washington avenue aforesaid, without expense to the City of Philadelphia. And said poles so replaced shall be the property of the City of Philadelphia, and shall not be less than forty-five feet in length and seven inches in diameter at the small end, straight, neatly dressed, and of chestnut timber; painted with not less than two coats of paint, and lettered "Police and Fire-alarm Telegraph," and shall be kept in repair by American Union Telegraph Company.

Sect. 3. The said American Union Telegraph Company shall give a bond, with warrant of attorney, to be entered up in the sum of ten thousand (10,000) dollars, conditioned for the removal of the poles in case of sale, merger, or consolidation with any other company. Provided, That the said American Union Telegraph Company shall pay to the City Treasurer the sum of fifty dollars to pay for the publication of this ordinance; And provided further, That the said work is done in accordance with an ordinance, approved April 18, 1863, regulating the construction of telegraph lines through the City of Philadelphia.

JOHN BARDSLEY,
President pro tem. of Common Council.

Attest—JOSEPH H. PAIST,
Clerk of Select Council.

GEO. A. SMITH,
President of Select Council.

WILLIAM S. STOKLEY,
Mayor of Philadelphia.

AN ORDINANCE

To authorize the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to occupy a portion of Filbert street for railroad purposes.

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Railroad Company have by and under authority granted by law, projected and are about constructing a branch line of railroad to extend from its main line in West Philadelphia into the business portion of the City; and

Whereas, In the construction of the said branch line as projected, it is necessary that a portion of Filbert street, west of Schock street, shall be partially occupied thereby, and that certain other streets shall be crossed by bridging the same; and

Whereas, The said Pennsylvania Railroad Company have, at a large expenditure of money, obtained rights of way for said line through private property, so that the necessity of interfering with the streets of the City of Philadelphia is to a great extent obviated; therefore

Section 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the Pennsylvania Railroad Company be, and is, hereby authorized to occupy the end of Filbert street, at the river Schuylkill, with an abutment for a railroad bridge, to be erected over and across the said river, and to use the line of said Filbert street from said abutment eastwardly to Schock street (220 feet eastward of Twenty-first street) with an iron trestle work, for supporting a branch line of railroad that shall connect the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in West Philadelphia with property owned by the said company in the vicinity of Market and Fifteenth streets. Provided, That the said abutment and iron trestle work shall be constructed to the satisfaction and acceptance of the Chief Engineer and Surveyor of the City of Philadelphia, and shall not prevent the use of the said Filbert street, as so occupied, as a public highway and thoroughfare to the river, and that the clear headway under such trestle work shall not be less than thirteen feet.

Sect. 2. That the said Pennsylvania Railroad Company are hereby authorized to bridge each and every of the streets running north and south lying between Merrick street on the east and river Schuylkill on the west, wherever the line of said railroad may cross the same, between Filbert street on the north and Jones street on the south. Provided, The structure for crossing said streets shall not interfere with the use of the street as a public thoroughfare, and that there shall be a clear headway at middle of carriage way of at least thirteen feet; and that the said Pennsylvania Railroad Company shall construct stone or brick bridges across Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets. Provided, Suitable arrangements can be made with the Trustees of the City Gas Works for sufficient ground at Twenty-second street, on the south side of Filbert street.

SECT. 3. That the said Pennsylvania Railroad Company shall agree to keep the said railroad and structures in good order and condition, and to save the City of Philadelphia harmless, so far as the said City may be liable therefor, from any responsibility or liability whatever that may grow out of the establishment and use of said railroad.

OFFICE OF THE CLERKS OF COUNCILS,
Philadelphia, November 21, 1879.

We do hereby certify that the ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to prevent the merging of the amount to the credit of Item 27, of the appropriation to the Water Department for 1879," was returned by his Honor the Mayor to the Common Council on the twentieth day of November, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, without his approval, and the said bill having been reconsidered by the Common Council, was passed the twentieth day of November, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, agreeably to the provisions of the Act of Assembly, approved May twenty-third, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, entitled "An Act dividing the cities of this State into three classes, regulating the passage of ordinances providing for supplies and work for said cities, authorizing the increase of indebtedness and the creation of a sinking fund to redeem the same, and punishing certain offences in all of said cities, and providing for the incorporation and government of cities of the third class," by the following vote: yeas, 64; nays, 1.

And the said ordinance together with the objections of his Honor the Mayor having been sent to Select Council for their consideration, was passed by that body on the twentieth day of November, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, agreeably to the said Act of Assembly, by the following vote: yeas, twenty-three; nays, two.

Wherefore the said ordinance, having been passed agreeably to the provisions of the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided, is now a law in full force and virtue.

Attest—JOHN ECKSTEIN,
Clerk of Common Council.

Attest—JOSEPH H. PAIST,
Clerk of Select Council.

WILLIAM S. STOKLEY,
Mayor of Philadelphia.

AN ORDINANCE

To authorize certain unexpended balances of loans in the City Treasury to be deposited with the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, and to regulate the return thereof when required.

SECTION 1. The Select and Common Councils of the City of Philadelphia do ordain, That the unexpended balances of the proceeds of any loan authorized before the first day of September, 1873, now in the City Treasury, shall be deposited with the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, who shall, whenever payment of any part thereof is made by the City Treasurer, upon his demand, repay the sum so paid by him, and it shall be the duty of the City Treasurer to pay the same, when demanded, out of any other funds in the Treasury not specifically appropriated, and be reimbursed the same as hereinbefore stated.

SECT. 2. The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund may invest the said sums so deposited in like manner as the moneys of the said Sinking Fund, and they shall repay so much thereof as may from time to time be required, as is specified in the foregoing section, and for such purpose, they may, when necessary, sell any part of the loan in which the same may have been invested.

SECT. 3. All ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

JOS. L. CAVEN,
President of Common Council.

Attest—JOHN ECKSTEIN,
Clerk of Common Council.

GEO. A. SMITH,
President of Select Council.
